Mitcheldean Young Storytellers' Competition

RULES: Please read carefully

1. Age is as at 31st August 2020.
2. Stories can be on any subject and of any length - up to a maximum of approx. 500 words.
3. Competition is limited to one story per entrant.
4. All entries should be on A4 paper (preferably typed), in English, with a title and must be the original, unpublished (in any media) work of the entrant.
5. All stories will be judged anonymously so please do not include any identifying information on the page(s) that you use for your story.
6. The closing date for entries is Friday 29th May 2020. A short-list will be drawn up and contenders notified by the end of June. The winners will be announced and prizes presented at the Festival Poetry Recital in Mitcheldean Church on Saturday 18th July 2020
7. Please keep a copy of your story as manuscripts cannot be returned.
8. The adjudicators' decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding individual entries.

HOW TO ENTER:

Email entries are preferred. Please type 'STORYTELLERS' COMPETITION' in the subject line, include your name, age, address and telephone number in the body of the email, together with the title of your story, and attach the story as a word document. E-mail entries should be returned to: contact@poetryfod.org

If you do not have e-mail, you may fill out an entry form (available from your school, from Mitcheldean Library and a selection of other local libraries, or downloaded from our website (www.poetryfod.org)) and include this in an envelope together with your story on a separate sheet. These can be posted or delivered to Mitcheldean library or posted to the address below:
